

John 15... 'I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener... Remain in me, and I will remain in you... No branch can bear fruit

The Welch's Grapevine

by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me... I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will

and it will be given you... This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit... As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love."

For The Glory of GOD!

Greetings from Lubbock, Texas. It is good for us to be here (Mark 9:5).

Howdy everyone,

Update, February, 2007

It has been far too long since we have sent you an update. We pray all is well with your precious souls. May our Lord's mercy, peace, joy, and love be yours in ever increasing faith! We praise God for each of you and how you have been a blessing to us throughout our lives.

Much has happened since we last wrote to you. In November, we made a very quick trip to Indiana to see Dennis' family for Thanksgiving. Mom was thrilled to have our company for the holiday. She continues to deeply grieve the passing of Dennis' father, Paul.

December saw Sharon graduate from her Emergency Medical Technician - Basic training and the conclusion of our second term at Sunset International Bible Institute. The classes Dennis completed were Greek, Homiletics, OT History 2, Christian Home, and Evangelistic Message. As the holiday season began, we journeyed to DFW to visit family and friends. We made a whirlwind trip to seven households in about 30 hours before continuing on to Arkansas where we spent most of the holidays visiting Sharon's sister and other friends.

There were so many of you we missed getting to see over Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years. We pray you had a truly splendid holiday season full of friends, family, and good cheer. God has blessed us all in so many ways. Thank you Father!

The New Year brought changes for Sharon. In January, she attended the Medical Missions Workshop held in Dallas and discovered the training path she was on would not be nearly as fruitful in Cambodia as she had hoped. Therefore, she has taken a step back to pray for God open a new window of opportunity for her. In the meantime, she is attending some of the classes at SIBI and working on a class service project.

Dennis has another complement of great classes including Acts, Matthew, Effective Bible Study, Scheme of Redemption, Evangelistic Methods, and Topical Preaching. These courses have lots of memory verses including all of Matthew 5 and most of Acts 2.

bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing... If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish,

John 15... 'I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener... Remain in me, and I will remain in you...No branch can bear fruit

The Welch's Grapevine

Page 2

and it will be given you... This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit... As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love."

The New Year brought changes for Sharon. In January, she attended the Medical Missions Workshop held in Dallas and discovered the training path she was on would not be nearly as fruitful in Cambodia as she had hoped. Therefore, she has taken a step back to pray for God open a new window of opportunity for her. In the meantime, she is attending some of the classes at SIBI and working on a class service project.

We continue to receive exciting news from many of the workers in Cambodia detailing how the Lord is doing mighty deeds for the kingdom. We look forward to hearing even more news about how the Lord is using His servants to grow the kingdom. Please continue to pray to the Lord of the harvest that He will raise up workers for the fields and that these workers will be effective at reaping the harvest.

We continue to enjoy the fellowship of some dear friends at our Tuesday evening Small Group Home Bible Study. Each week we gather with these saints and study different facets of God's revelation to mankind.

We sure do miss each one of you. We long for an opportunity to see you again soon. Please pray for our work, that we remain on course with God's will and that we are a blessing to everyone we encounter. Email us when you can. And finally, remember, it is never wrong to do right!

Your servants, Christ's humble slaves,

Dennis & Sharon Welch

by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me... I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing... If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish,